Attention, Farmers!

Having taken charge of the business, that has in the past been known as Haggard & Speaks, I will endeavor to make my establishment one of the best in Central Kentucky. I cordially invite all the farmers in Bourbon and adjoining counties to give me a call. I have the best makes of all modern Farm Implements—Buggies, Wagons—in fact, everything that is used on a farm. I also make a specialty of putting Rubber Tire on Buggies.

Yours for honest dealing,

J. H. HAGGARD.

CHURCH CHIMES.

—Miss Etha Vanarsdale united with the Christian church Sunday night.

—The first Sunday in March will be Foreign Mission day in Christian churches.

—Bishop Thos. U. Dudley, of Kentucky, was seated upon a veranda in Louisville last Easter watching the people crossing the street. The day was a very busy one. A friend came along. "Ab, bishop," said he, "what are you doing this dreary afternoon?"

"Merely watching the Passover," replied the Episcopal gentleman.—New York Times.

—The Rev. George O. Barnes, who is now preaching at Springfield, has announced his intention of visiting every county in Kentucky. Mr. Barnes says he has received a special call from God to preach in every county in Kentucky, and he declares that it is his conviction that before he has completed his tour of the State, spending one week in each county, that the Lord will have come.

—Rev. F. P. Wentworth, of Frankfort, has accepted a call to the pastorate of Immanuel Episcopal Church, at Winchester, and will enter upon the work March 1.

—The state convention of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held in Lexington February 12th. This will be the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the Association in Kentucky.

HEMP WANTED.—We will pay the highest cash market price for hemp.

Auction To-Day at 1:30.

Don't forget my auction sale to day at 1:30 o'clock, sharp, at the old Christian church building. I have a number of bed room sets that will be offered to the highest bidder to day. Also table chairs, carpets, matting, pictures, etc. Don't fail to attend. Remember, you set the price on them, not me—they are yours at your own price.
J. T. HINTON.
